

THE GUARDIAN & WEB SITE

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all contributors to the Guardian. I would like to encourage new members of the parish to try out their writing skills, please don't wait for me to ask you! Who knows you may be surprised as to how well you can write. I am particularly looking for articles from our youth to keep us all up to date on what is going on with the Youth Group. Please keep the articles flowing, when you have an idea put it down on paper there and then as articles may be sent to me at any time between two issues. This makes it a lot easier for me as I constantly seem to be in a rush when it comes down to publishing the Guardian.

We started off the year with printing only special requests but found that not many parishioners were reading the Guardian on line. So we tried to combine the Guardian together with a six week bulletin but many parishioners were not in favour of this. We then returned to the weekly bulletin done by our parish secretary and a more frequent Guardian of just a few pages. I now print limited copies of the Guardian as it can still always be read on our web site.

In April our web site will have its 10th birthday! I am amazed how this has developed from a very small site, mainly to publish the Guardian for out of town ex parishioners to what it is today. May I say I get a lot of pleasure in working on this site, even though sometimes I am a tad behind in bringing it up-to-date. Please do not hesitate to let me know of anything that you would like to see published on the site.

Respectfully submitted,

Jacqui Hoitz
